

Hello, I am writing to share my opinion that I want to have a quick waiting time to get my service. Also I want to have all products to have unlimited choice to choose provider/service not being stuck to one provider. The important thing is to have equal access to any providers or services with no barriers or preferences to stick with one. That is what I hope that FCC will see that. Thank you